

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR SKIERS/SNOWBOARDERS

Aldershot Snowsports for the Disabled (“ASD”) is a registered community amateur sports club affiliated to Snowsport England which provides opportunities for disabled people of all ages to ski or snowboard. This code of conduct has been adapted from an SSE resource.

As a member of ASD and participant in snowsports activities and competitions I agree to abide by the code of conduct provided below:

-  I will show respect to instructors, guides and helpers at all times.
-  I will respect volunteers and officials involved in snowsports and I understand that my participation and that of other skiers and snowboarders is only possible because of the time freely given by those volunteers to help me and others.
-  I will show respect to all other members of ASD, their families, to my team and other participants.
-  I understand that ASD is about making everyone feel welcome and involved and about fully inclusive snowsports. I will not take part in any bullying or any activity that could be construed as bullying. If I am worried about bullying I will talk to my family and a member of the ASD Committee.
-  I will act in a manner at all times that does not bring myself, my sport or ASD into disrepute during races, training and ASD sessions. I will keep in mind that I represent ASD and all that it stands for when I am involved in snowsports activities.
-  I understand that disciplinary action may be taken against me for breach of rules or for reasons of behaviour. The type of action taken will depend on the nature and seriousness of my actions/ breach of these rules and may include a verbal or written warning.
